"We can't wait for February 10th to arrive when The Moonlit Fables of Jack the Rider will be released!" Says Barb Vest. Adding "Thanks a million to all of our pledgers for their support, from Taiwan to Quebec, England to Switzerland, California to Maine! We still have several exclusives that will no longer be available after our PledgeMusic campaign wraps up, including recording time in our Oklahoma studio and personalized songs, among others. Check those out at our PledgeMusic page. We appreciate all of the support and are elated to be on the verge of getting to take our listeners on a ten track sonic journey through Jack's world."

The Moonlit Fables of Jack The Rider is a concept album following the story of the traveler Jack, who descends into a world reminiscent of The Twilight Zone where nothing is exactly as it seems. His history unfolds with each sonic tale on the forthcoming LP.
